Internship Role: Western Canada Broker

Reporting to the Executive Vice President & Leader, Western Canada and the Regional Client Services Manager – Market Relations, Western Canada, you will have an opportunity to develop skills and receive exposures to the Aon business world through an accelerated Career Development Program.

This program focuses on an immersion into several of the various aspects of the Aon Reed Stenhouse commercial business. The program will be tailored to fit the interests and skills of the candidate, and include rotations in the following areas:

- Sales & Service
- Marketing
- Risk Management
- Risk Control
- Claims

As a successful candidate, you will be involved in:

- Learning our full range of products, solutions and advisory capabilities;
- Learning about markets and how they are selected;
- Assist Brokers and Account Managers on client research, renewals, new business opportunities, submissions, RFPs and presentations;
- Participate in strategy renewal meetings with Account Managers and Brokers.
- Attend insurer presentations and meetings;
- Attend client site visits with Risk Control Consultants and Claims Consultants;
- Working on special regional projects which will provide opportunities to visit offices across our branches (12) in Western Canada and learn about our core industry segments;
- Regular feedback sessions and interactions with senior executives regarding lines of business, overall operations and business processes; and
- Having fun in a fast paced and engaging environment.

Outcomes

- You will learn our business in a very short period of time, get to know regional personnel; gauge their personal long term interest in Aon, and learn a great deal about multiple industries;
- You can easily position yourself for a full-time role upon graduation given the scope and sponsorship of one on Aon's most senior executives.

Aon is an equal opportunity employer committed to a diverse workforce.
